The Stages of Moral Reasoning

Stage 0: Egocentric Reasoning (preschool years – around age 4)	Stage 1: Unquestioning Obedience (around kindergarten age)	Stage 2: "What's-in-it-for-me" Reasoning (early elementary grades)	Stage 3: Interpersonal Conformity (middle-to-upper ele- mentary grades and early-to-mid teens)	Stage 4: Responsibility to "The System" (high school years or late teens)	Stage 5: Principled Conscience (young adulthood)
l should get my own way.	I should do what I'm told.	I should look out for myself but be fair to those who are fair to me.	I should be a nice per- son and live up to the expectations of people I know and care about.	I should fulfill my respon- sibilities to the social or value system I feel part of.	I should show the greatest possible respect for the rights and dignity of every person and should support a system that protects human rights.
To get rewards and avoid punishments	To stay out of trouble.	Self-interest. What's in it for me?	So others will think well of me.	To keep the system from falling apart and to main- tain self-respect(to) meet obligations.	The obligation of con- science to act in accor- dance with the principle of respect for all human beings.
	Egocentric Reasoning (preschool years – around age 4) I should get my own way.	Egocentric Reasoning (preschool years – around age 4) Unquestioning Obedience (around kindergarten age) I should get my own way. I should do what I'm told. To get rewards and To stay out of trouble.	Egocentric Reasoning (preschool years – around age 4)Unquestioning Obedience (around kindergarten age)"What's-in-it-for-me" Reasoning (early elementary grades)I should get my own way.I should do what I'm told.I should look out for myself but be fair to those who are fair to me.To get rewards andTo stay out of trouble.Self-interest. What's in	Egocentric Reasoning (preschool years – around age 4)Unquestioning Obedience (around kindergarten age)"What's-in-it-for-me" Reasoning (early elementary grades)Interpersonal Conformity (middle-to-upper ele- mentary grades and early-to-mid teens)I should get my own way.I should do what I'm told.I should look out for myself but be fair to those who are fair to me.I should be a nice per- son and live up to the expectations of people I know and care about.To get rewards andTo stay out of trouble.Self-interest. What's inSo others will think	Egocentric Reasoning (preschool years – around age 4)Unquestioning Obedience (around kindergarten age)"What's-in-it-for-me" Reasoning (early elementary grades)Interpersonal Conformity (middle-to-upper ele- mentary grades and early-to-mid teens)Responsibility to "The System" (high school years or late teens)I should get my own way.I should do what I'm told.I should look out for myself but be fair to those who are fair to me.I should be a nice per- son and live up to the expectations of people I know and care about.I should fulfill my respon- sibilities to the social or value system I feel part Lickona, Thomas. Raising Good Children: From Birth Through the Teenage Years. New York: Bantam Books, 1985.